

S. Emmett Thomas III, 64, of Newport, RI, New York, and Hong Kong, passed away peacefully on September 11, 2024, in Westchester County, NY.

Emmett had a long career in management consulting and private equity. Most recently, he served as a Senior Partner and Head of Asia at Advantage Partners, a leading Asian buyout firm. Before this, he was President of Asia for the Monitor Group, a global strategy consultancy. Emmett spent most of his professional life in Asia, having lived in Hong Kong since 1995, with earlier stints in Tokyo.

A native of Massachusetts, he was born in Boston and raised in Weston and Gloucester. He was a proud alumnus of Noble and Greenough School, Duke University, and Harvard Business School. In his youth, Emmett was a talented athlete ranked regionally in tennis, squash, and paddle tennis. In recent years, his athletic focus turned to golf, whereby he traveled widely in pursuit of the sport.

His sportsmanship extended far beyond the playing field. Known for his gentlemanly demeanor and humility, he was beloved by colleagues and friends alike. He had a unique ability to make everyone feel included and valued, even when he disagreed. His leadership style brought out the best in others, ensuring they enjoyed the process.

A jazz enthusiast, collector, and connoisseur of fine wine and Cuban cigars, Emmett generously shared his passions with those around him. Whether stopping by the Blue Note in Tokyo or sharing rare bottles from his extensive wine collection, he was always eager to introduce others to his interests. He even inspired some friends to view wine collecting as an investment, a practice many continue today.

Emmett was inimitable. Known for his positivity and intelligence, he was always good-spirited, thoughtful, and quick with his sly New England humor. His love for the Patriots and Red Sox was contagious. Above all, he was a kind, gracious gentleman, consistently encouraging and optimistic. He carried these traits throughout his life and maintained them until the end.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Veronica, and their daughter, Samantha; his three sisters, Victoria Godfrey (Bruce), Alexandra Taussig (William), and Isobel Thomas; and his mother, Diane Sargent of Annisquam, MA. He was predeceased by his father, Stanley E. Thomas Jr.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in his name to charities of the donor's choice or to Tenacity, a local Boston charity <https://tenacity.org/donate>.
